Pope Formally Elevates New Cardinals at Rome.

PUBLIC CONSISTORY TODAY.

Three Americans Among New Princes of Church-Cardinal Falconio Thanks Pontiff For Honor For Himself and Colleagues Just Elected to the Sacred College,

Rome, Nov. 30 .- More than a thou sand persons witnessed the semiofficial ceremony of the conferring of the birettas on the new cardinals in the consistorial hall. These included the delegations which accompanied each cardinal and their relatives. The latter included a nephew of Cardinal Farley and a niece of Cardinal O'Connell, who occupied front seats in the hall. There were many clergymen of all nationalities in attendance.

The chamberiains in their capes and picturesque black velvet costumes, with swords at their sides, ushered the guests to the places which had been assigned to them by their invitations. All those without invitations had to stand up at the end of the hall, as there were few seats.

The pope walked into the hall followed by a brilliant retinue. The purple robed prelates occupied seats on either side of the throne in which the pontiff had taken his seat. Then the master of ceremonies called out the names of the cardinals who were preent to receive the red biretta. Each cardinal advanced, then genuflected three times and finally knelt in front of the pope for the imposition of the mozetta (cape) and cap. The cardinals were called in the following order. which will be followed at today's put lic consistory: Mgr. Diomede Falconio apostolic delegate at Washington; Mgr Granito di Belmonte Pignatelli; the Most Rev. John Farley, archbishop of New York; the Most Rev. Francis Bourne, archbishop of Westminster: A. Amette, archbishop of Paris; the Most Rev. William H. O'Connell, archbishop of Boston; Mgr. F. V Dubiliard, archbishop of Chambery Mgr. Roverie de Cabriere, bishop of Montpeller, France; Mgr. Bisleti, papal umjor domo; Mgr. Lugari, assessor of the holy office; Mgr. Pompeli, secre tary of the congregation council; Mgr Millot of the Jesuit order, Mgr. Van Bossum, Redemptorist.

Each cardinal was attended by his secretary and a gentleman in waiting. train bearers and masters of ceremo-

After the new cardinals had been invested with the minor insignia they took seats on benches around the throne. Cardinal Falconio, as the senfor cardinal present, then arose and made a speech in Italian. He said he felt honored at being selected to express to the pope on behalf of himself and his most eminent colleagues their thanks and homage on this solemn day of their elevation to the purple. They were all fully convinced that their merits were not in proportion to the high rank bestowed upon them, but was a proof of the pontiff's benevolence. The cardinals, said Mgr. Falconlo, were deeply grateful and were bound to reciprocate by offering the pope their work and placing themselves at his entire disposal. They fully realized the responsibility of the holy father, especially in the present troubled times, when society threatened antireligious attempts to demolish the Church of Christ. It was owing to the pope's energetic and constant defense since his elevation to the chair of Peter that the devastating torrent had been stopped.

HALL-HINE NUPTIAL

Pretty Wedding At Orson, Tuesday Evening.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Hall, Orson, Tuesday evening, No-vember 28, when their daughter, Miss Grace Hall, was united in marriage to Archibald Christopher Hine, son of Ira W. Hine. Promptly at eight 'clock to the strains of Lohengrin's dding march played by Mrs. G. C. Tallman of Honesdale, planist, and Dr. H. A. Evans of Wilkes-Barre, violinist, the wedding party descended the stairs led by Master Spencer Evans of Wilkes-Barre bearing ring on a gold tray, a gift to bride's grandparents on their fiftieth anniversary. Then came Gladys Harlow of Orson and Pearl Engle of Wilkes-Barre carrying baskets of Wilkes-Barre carrying baskets of roses which they strewed along the pathway of the bride. Following these came the bridesmaids, Miss Alice Tallman of Honesdale and Miss Reba Hine of Orson, sister of the Reba Hine of Orson, sister of the groom. Miss Charlotte Bullock of preceded the bride who entered leaning on the arm of her grandfather, H. B. Hall, and passing up an alsle made by ribbons drawn through the center of the room took their places in the large bay window under a bell made of ground pine, where they were met by the groom and best man, Royal Hine of Carbondale, brother of the groom. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Swift, pastor of the First Presbyter-ian characteristics. A. Bortree, Mrs. Hatherill, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. W. R. Sayer, Mrs. Della English, Mrs. Wm. Basley, Mrs. C. Wardell; from Gouldsboro, Mr. and Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Rhodes, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Kerling, Mrs. Etna Staples, Mrs. S. A. Adams, Mrs. Geo. Johnson, Sr., Misses Bessie, Grace, Anna, Helen, Gertrude and Margaret Honesdale was maid of honor and preceded the bride who entered lean-Swift, pastor of the First Presbyter-ian church, Honesdale, while "Hearts and Flowers" was softly played. During congratulations Mendelssohn's wedding march was rendered. The guests were then ushered into the dining room where the following menu was served: Chicken salad, potato croquettes, celery, pickles, rolls, bread and butter sandwiches, Neapolitan ice cream, cake, fruit, saited peanuts, bon-bons, coffee, cigars. The bride looked charming in a dress of white Duchess satin trimmed with Irish baby lace and a veil, carrying a shower bouquet of bridal roses and hyacinths. She also wore a pearl necklace, the gift of her mother and a pin of sapphines and pearls, the gift of the groom. The maid of hon-or wore net over yellow satin and carried yellow chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids' dresses were white batiste over pin silk and they carried pink chrysanthemums. The flower girls wore white over pink. The ride's gifts to her maids were beautiful wreath pins set with rubies and emeralds; the maid of honor received a pearl crescent pin. The groom's presents to the best man and ushers were stick pins. The gift of the bride's mother to the groom was a gold watch. The decorations were laurel, ground pine, chrysanthe-mums and roses. The bride received a large collection of beautiful presents including cut glass, china, silver, linen, pictures and money, which showed the high esteem in which these young people are held. The bride and groom left on the following day for Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse, Cortiand and Binghamton. On their return they will reside with the bride's parents until spring. The bride's going away suit was plum color with hat to match. The out-of-town guests were: Laura Eno Bullock, Charlotte Bullock, Mrs. G. Tallman, Alice Tallman, Honesdale; Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Evans, son Spencer, Miss Anna Simkovitz, Mrs. Engle and daughter Pearl, Miss Louise Davis and Mrs. T. Rowlands Engle and daughter Pearl, Miss Louise Davis and Mrs. T. Rowlands,
